Seed and Seedling Giveaway New Date!

Great Kids Farm, Baltimore

Due to unforeseen circumstances related to the harsh cold temperatures, the Feb seedling giveaway is postponed one month with the new date as March 28, 10am - 2pm. This will be a great opportunity to enjoy the warmer weather and meet our new Farmer! City Schools staff are invited to stop by the farm to receive free living educational materials for use with students. To help schools successfully maintain or establish their living educational space, we have selected low-maintenance varieties and we will have information sheets available. No RSVP is required. We do ask teachers to fill out a one page survey before collecting materials, available when you arrive.

"Flock to the Classroom" Curriculum Guides

Delmarva Poultry Industry, Inc.

"Flock to the Classroom" is a series of six lessons that explore the many facets of the chicken industry on the Delmarva Peninsula. Developed under the leadership of DPI's Connie Parvis in cooperation with educational professionals at the Maryland Agricultural Education Foundation, the educational tools are designed to enhance science, social studies, and math classes. The lessons are aligned with one or more educational standards set to ensure their usability in regional classrooms.

Copies of the 45-page manual, "Flock to the Classroom", are available to middle school educators (grades 5-9) in Delaware, Maryland, and Virginia at no charge. Teachers in other states may request copies at $12.00 each. Requests may be emailed to dpi@dpichicken.com and must include the teacher's name, school mailing address, grade taught, and a telephone number. Requests may also be made by telephone to 800-878-2449 or 302-856-9037 or by mail to Flock to the Classroom, c/o Delmarva Poultry Industry, Inc., 16686 County Seat Hwy., Georgetown, DE 19947.

In Praise of Prairie

The elm tree is our highest mountain peak;

A five-foot drop a valley, so to speak.
A man's head is an eminence upon
A field of barley spread beneath the sun.
Horizons have no strangeness to the eye.
Our feet are sometimes level with the sky,
When we are walking on a treeless plain,
With ankles bruised from stubble of the grain.
The fields stretch out in long, unbroken rows.
We walk aware of what is far and close.
Here distance is familiar as a friend.
The feud we kept with space comes to an end.
